Structure Barnes, General James W., Plantation House

E. of Anderson 2 1/2 miles, via Farm Road 1774. Wooden frame, 64'5" (five-bay front) x 33'0", two stories, hipped-roof rectangle, pedimented two-story front entrance porch, lean-to additions at rear. A two-story log house built in 1842 was refinished to become part of the mansion completed in 1858, now in poor state of repair. Builder James W. Barnes, a successful planter, served as Brigadier General in the Confederate Army.
